speaker

Kalypso Apergi

Short paragraph about the topic:

Integrating entrepreneurship into STEAME (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, Mathematics, and Entrepreneurship) education through project-based learning (PBL) is an effective way to provide students with hands-on experiences and develop a practical understanding of how their skills can be applied in the real world. This seminar, will present a step-by-step guide on how to incorporate entrepreneurship into STEAME education using project-based learning, and examples of good practices in Cypriot Schools.

Short bio of the speaker:

Kalypso Apergi brings over 30 years of diverse experience in education, as a musician, Vice Principal, and Teachers' Trainer at the Cyprus Pedagogical Institute since 2015, as a coordinator of In-Service Training Programs for School Leaders and of In-Service Training Programs for Entrepreneurship in Education. Currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Educational Administration and Evaluation at the University of Cyprus, Kalypso holds a BA (Hons) in Performing Arts and an MA in Educational Leadership.
